PROGRAMME NOTES

Chicken Run: Main Title

Written by Harry Gregson-Williams and John Powell, the music from Chicken Run is a mix of determination, chaos and joy that clearly portrays the Great Escape, seen in the crusade of the chickens trying to escape the dark fate that awaits them on their home farm. To add to the comical joy of the music the score also features kazoos and whistles, which our musicians are very excited to play.

La La Land Concert Suite

This stunning arrangement of music from the Oscar winning movie La La Land gives a glimpse into the love story of a struggling actress and jazz pianist who meet while trying to find their place in LA. From moments of quiet reflection at the piano, the energy of people singing and dancing on the freeway in rush hour, to glittering jazz solos and romantic waltzes, the music from La La Land is sure to pull you along for the ride.

The Theory of Everything

Whilst the rest of the score composed by Jóhann Jóhannsson was the composers signature sound of both electric and acoustic instruments, the final scene of the movie, which is a flashback of main character Stephen Hawking and his family is scored by a piece of music called “The Arrival of the Birds”. Originally written for the 2008 nature documentary, The Crimson Wing: Mystery of the Flamingos by the Cinematic Orchestra, it is a simple yet beautiful piece that conveys beauty and hope.

Star Trek: Into Darkness

Written by Michael Giacchino, the music for Star Trek: Into Darkness continues to build upon existing themes in the Star Trek universe. Giacchino develops the music and his arrangements to reflect the darker tone of this movie and create the desired emotional response. The result is a version of Star Trek that is both familiar and new to the audience and conveys the higher stakes of the movie's exploration.

Cinema Paradiso

Set in a small Sicilian town, the film centres on the friendship between a young boy and an aging projectionist who works at the local cinema, the Cinema Paradiso. The score was written by legendary film composer Ennio Morricone, of the Mission and the Good, the Bad and the Ugly fame, and was the first of his many collaborations with director Tornatore. This arrangement features concertmaster, Myra Lee as our soloist.

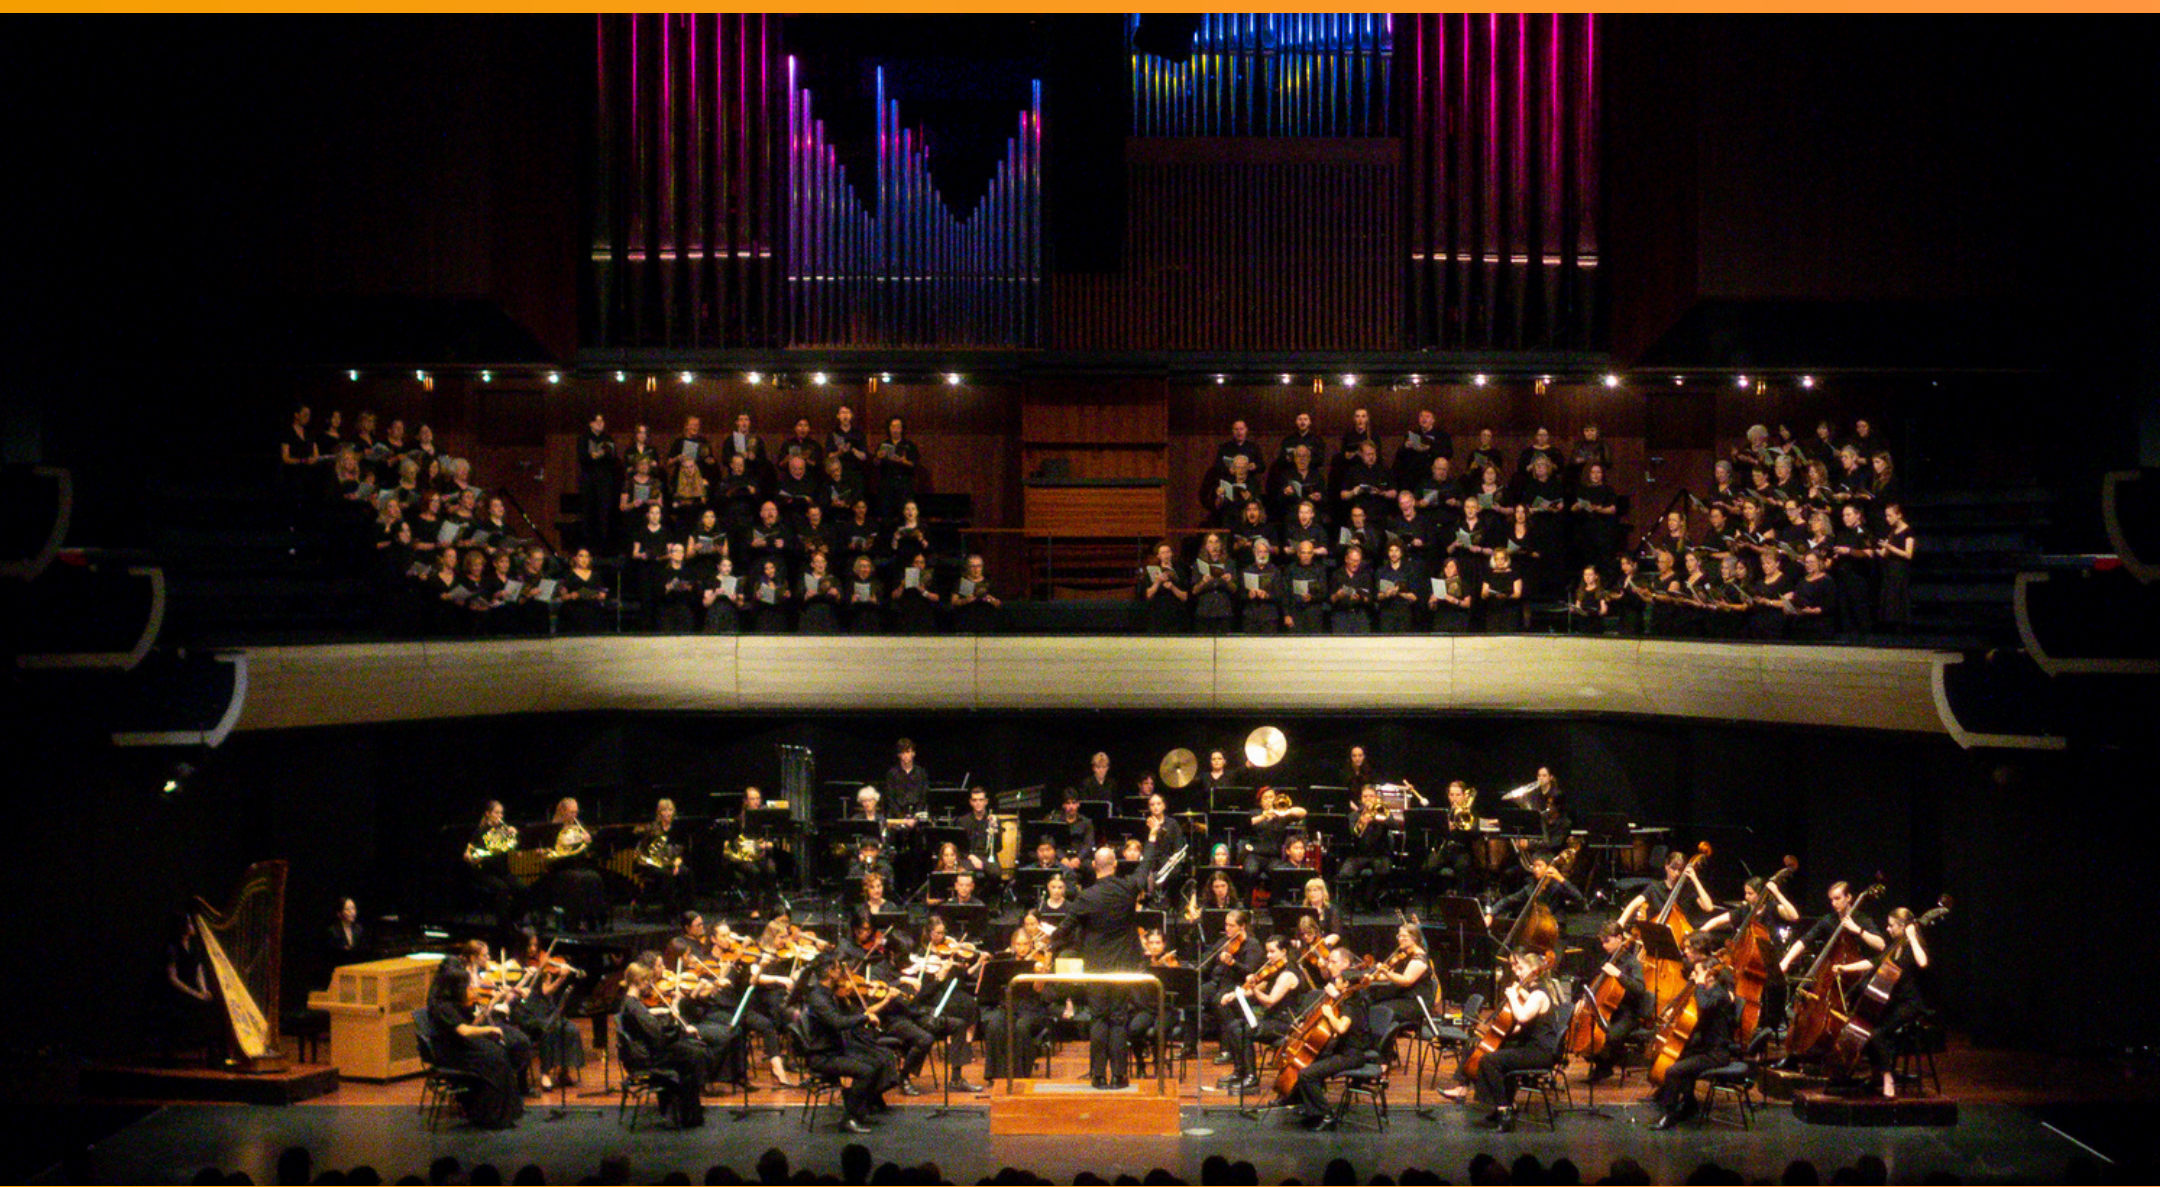

Raiders March

One of John Williams' many classic scores in collaboration with Steven Spielberg, the Indian Jones score and the Raiders March in particular was meant to be theatrical and excessive. Originally two separate themes written by Williams, they were combined and became the main theme of the title character, Indiana Jones, throughout the series of movies. The Raiders March performed tonight also includes Marion's Theme, the romantic theme in the movie.

The Lion King Orchestral Suite

One of the most iconic movies, and later musicals of the 1990's, Hans Zimmer's score for Disney's smash hit the Lion King is widely loved and earned an Academy Award for Best Original Score in 1995. This stunning arrangement includes music from the opening of the film, the Wildebeest Stampede and the Return to Pride Rock. This suite will awaken memories of joy, childhood trauma and awe at the beauty that was original the Lion King movie and score.

Spirited Away Suite

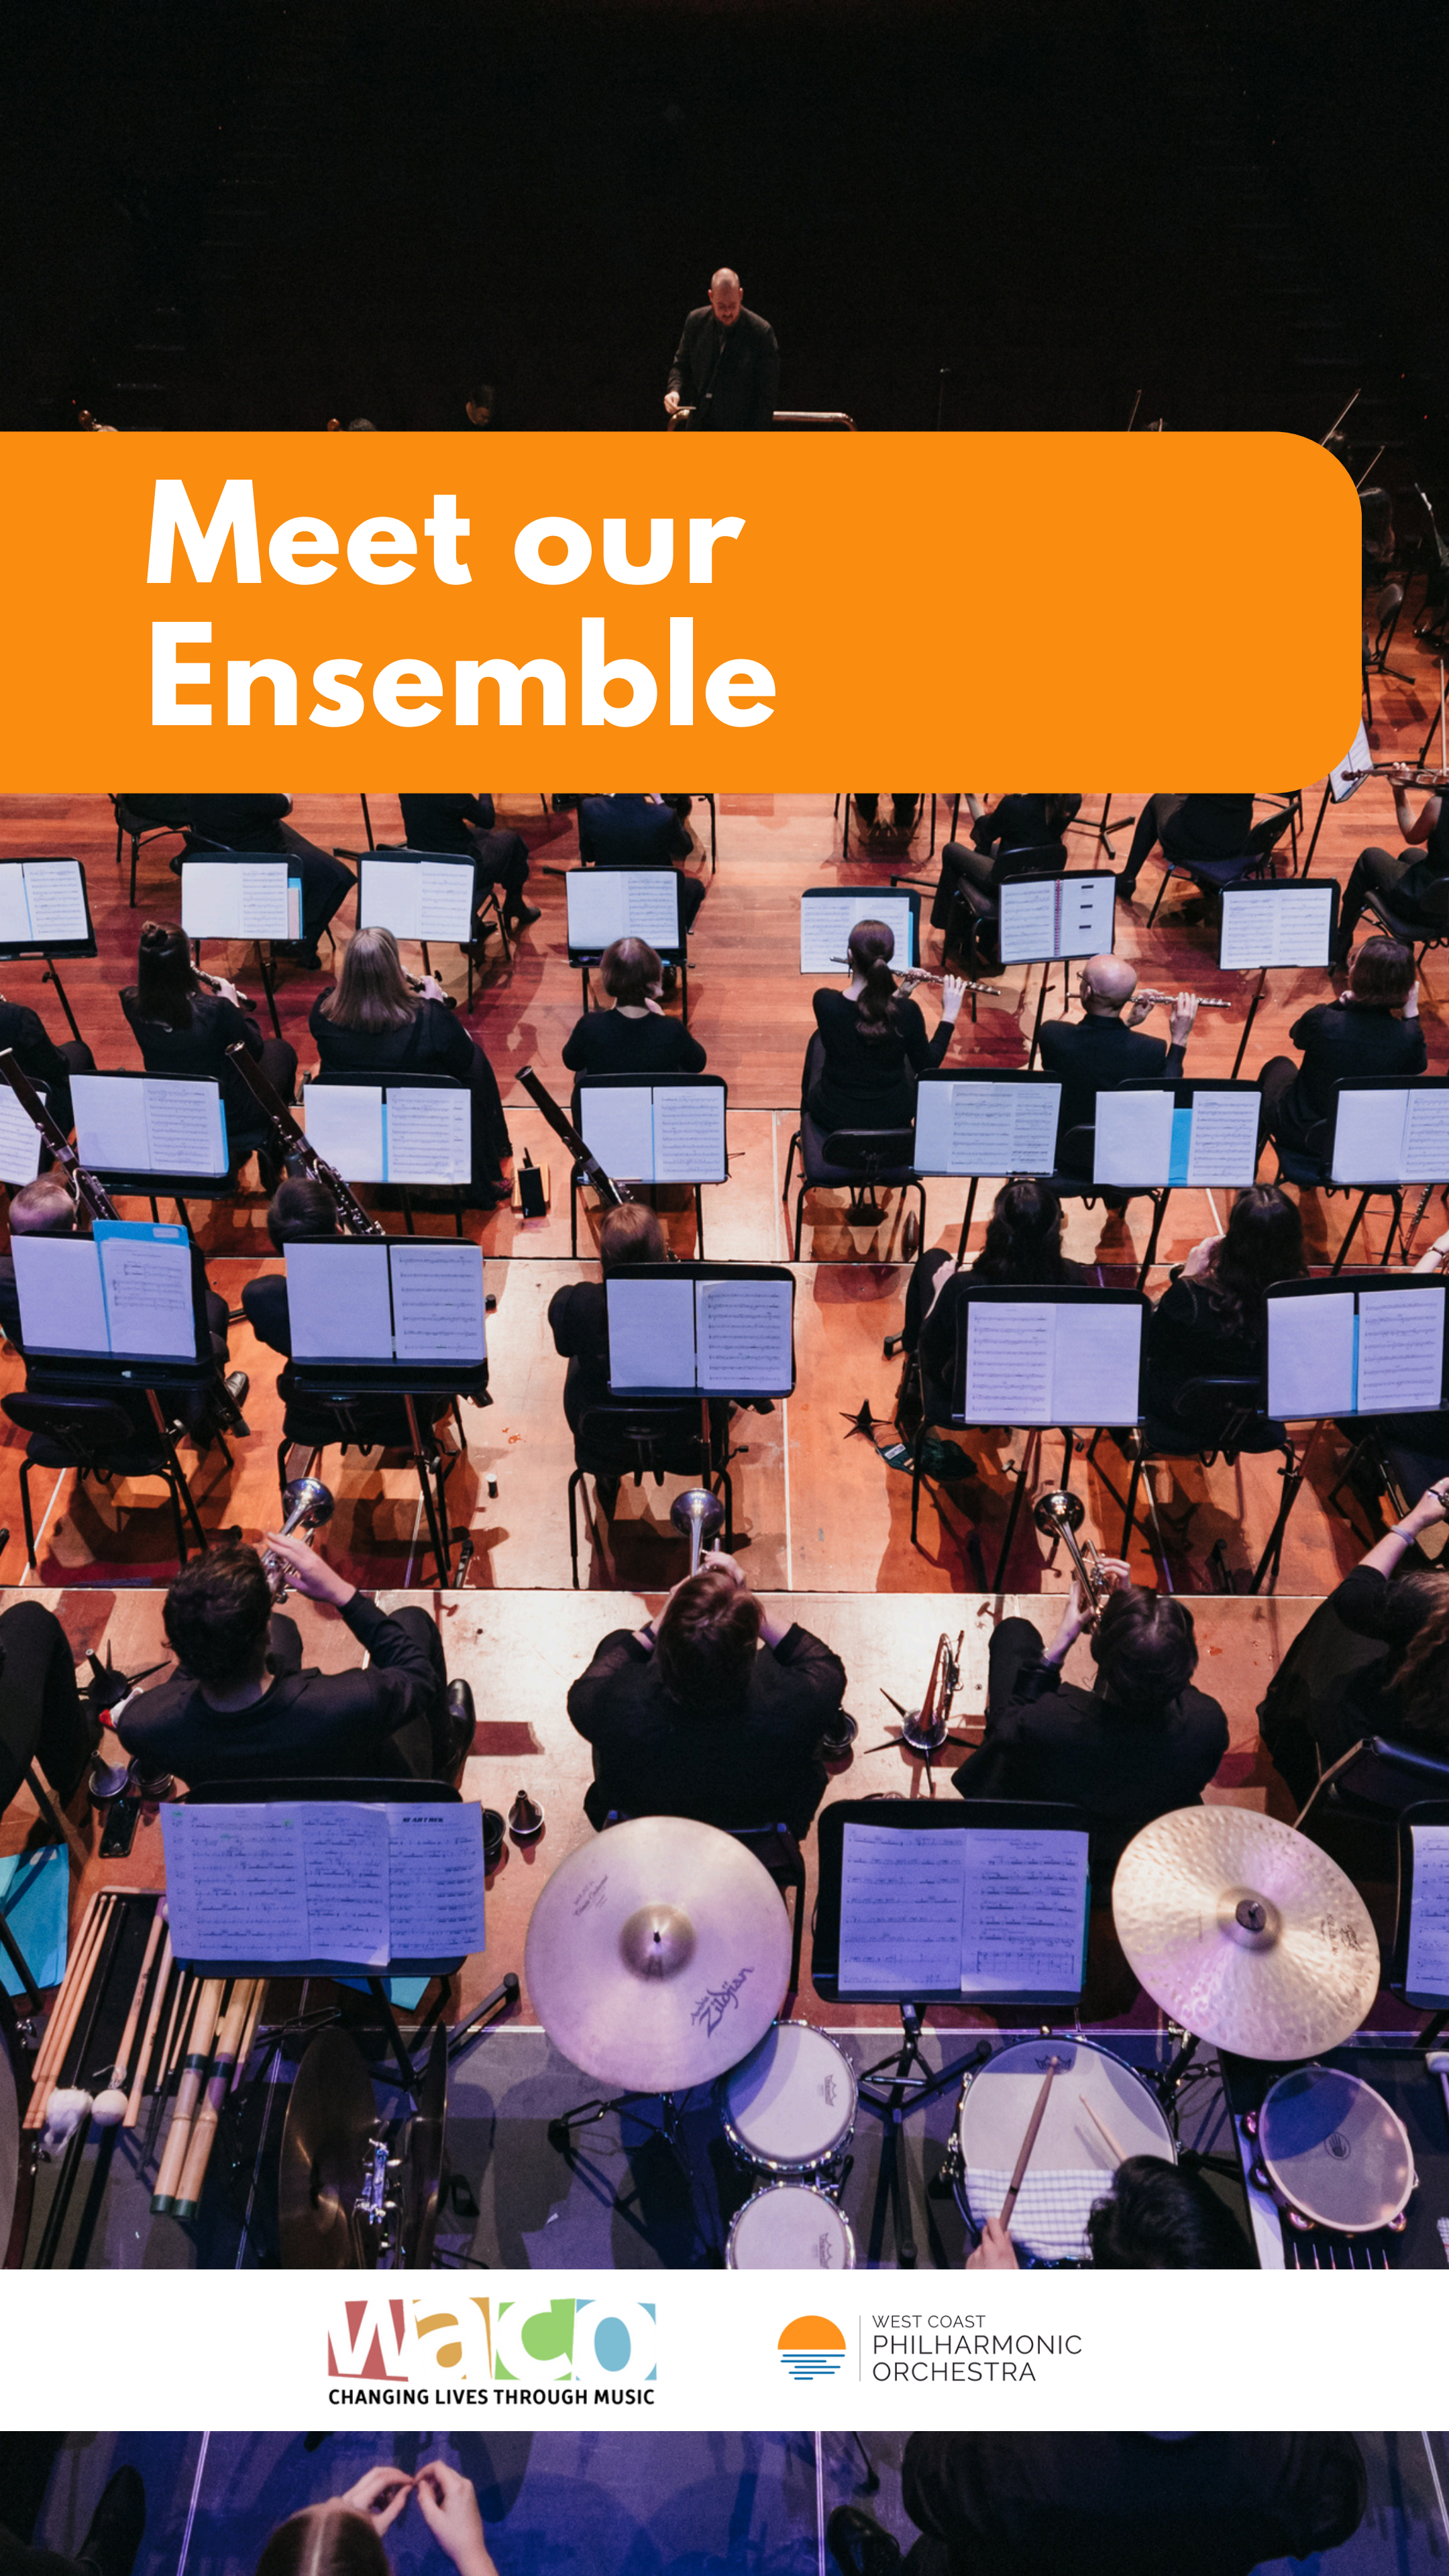

Born 1950 in Nakano, Nagano, Japan, Joe Hisaishi started to learn violin at age 4, and his interest in film also developed at this time as he watched many movies with his father. In 1969 he started his studies as a composition student at Kunitachi College of Music. It was at Kunitachi College that he began to developed his interest in both minimalism and composing for animation.

Chihiro thinks she is on another boring trip with her parents. But when they stop at a village that is not all that it seems, her parents undergo a mysterious transformation, and Chihiro is whisked into a world of fantastic spirits, shape-shifting dragons and a witch who never wants to see her leave. She must call on the courage she never knew she had to free herself and return her family to the outside world. Themes featured in Spirited Away include One Summer's Day and Always With Me.

Theme From Jurassic Park

The original Jurassic Park movie received critical acclaim for many aspects of the movie, from direction by Spielberg, to its special effects, and of course John Williams' classic score. The themes from Jurassic Park convey the almost childlike wonder of seeing live dinosaurs for the first time, with the well known line "they do move in herds", the stunning landscape of Isla Numlar, and the celebration of scientific discovery.
